The story: When seven months pregnant Vidya Bagchi arrives from London in Kolkata her first stop is the local police station to file a missing person report. Weeks ago, her husband Arnab arrived in India for a job assignment – and after only two weeks his calls stopped. Everywhere Vidya turns, no one can remember Arnab – but Vidya is neither ready nor willing to give up, and soon discovers a dangerous truth...

More about the story: When seven months pregnant Vidya Bagchi arrives from London in Kolkata her first stop is the local police station to file a missing person report. Weeks ago, her husband Arnab arrived in India for a job assignment – and after only two weeks his calls stopped. Everywhere Vidya turns, no one can remember Arnab – but Vidya is neither ready nor willing to give up.

Soon a frightening lead is delivered to her – Arnab resembles in looks a man who was accused of being responsible for a poison gas attack in a Kolkata Metro Rail compartment that killed all passengers inside. Now Vidya and police officer Rana engage in a search for the truth that brings them both close to shady people and a truth that will surprise everyone.
